

ASX Announcement (UWL) Response to Media Speculation

15 March 2022: Uniti Group Limited (Uniti or Company) refers to media speculation this morning in relation to a potential control transaction.

Uniti confirms it has entered into exclusive discussions with HRL Morrison & Co. on behalf of its managed funds and clients (Morrison & Co). However, these discussions are non-binding, preliminary, highly conditional and uncertain as to an outcome (Indicative Proposal). The full terms of the exclusivity deed are annexed to this announcement. The latest date that the exclusivity period will end is 22 April 2022. Uniti will update the market if this date changes.

Further, Uniti confirms that the non-binding, conditional Indicative Proposal is for an indicative price of $4.50 cash per share, fully diluted, which is within the value range mentioned in the media speculation.

The Indicative Proposal is subject to a number of conditions, including satisfactory completion of the bidder's confirmatory due diligence; unanimous recommendation of the transaction from the Uniti Board; entry into a mutually acceptable scheme implementation agreement containing customary exclusivity terms, conditions precedent (including but not limited to FIRB), prescribed occurrences, break fee provisions and receipt by Morrison & Co of its required internal investment approvals.

The Board notes that it is uncertain that the Indicative Proposal will result in an offer to Uniti shareholders.

Uniti will update shareholders, in accordance with the Company's continuous disclosure obligations, in due course. In the meantime, Uniti shareholders should not take any action in relation to the Indicative Proposal.

Uniti has appointed Clayton Utz as its legal advisor.

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors.

2. Exclusivity

2.1 No shop

During the Exclusivity Period, Target must ensure that neither it nor any of its Representatives directly or indirectly:

- (a) solicits, invites, encourages or initiates any enquiries, expressions of interest, offers, proposals, negotiations or discussions; or
- (b) communicates any intention to do any of these things, with a view to obtaining, or that may be reasonably expected to encourage or lead to, a Competing Proposal.

2.2 No talk

Subject to clause 2.4, during the Exclusivity Period, Target must not, and must ensure that each of its Representatives does not, directly or indirectly:

- (a) participate in or continue any negotiations or discussions with respect to any inquiry, expression of interest, offer, proposal or discussion by any person which would reasonably be expected to lead to the making of, a Competing Proposal; or
- (b) negotiate, accept or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding regarding a Competing Proposal, even if the relevant Competing Proposal was not directly or indirectly solicited, invited, encouraged, facilitated or initiated by Target, any other Target Group Member, or a Representative of a Target Group Member or the relevant person has publicly announced the Competing Proposal.

2.3 No due diligence

Subject to clause 2.4, during the Exclusivity Period, Target must not, and must ensure that each of its Representatives does not, directly or indirectly disclose or otherwise make available any non-public information about the business, assets or affairs of the Target Group or provide access to any Target officers or employees to a Third Party (other than a Regulatory Authority) with a view to obtaining, or which would reasonably be expected to lead to receipt of, a Competing Proposal (including providing such information for the purposes of the conduct of due diligence investigations in respect of the Target Group) whether by that Third Party or another person.

2.4 Fiduciary exception

Clauses 2.2 and 2.3 do not prohibit any action or inaction by Target, any Target Group Member, or any of their respective Representatives in relation to a bona fide, actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal if the Target Board, acting in good faith, has determined:

- (a) after consultation with Target's advisors, that the Competing Proposal could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal; and
- (b) after receiving advice from Target's reputable external Australian legal advisers specialising in the area of corporate law, that compliance with clauses 2.2 or 2.3 (as applicable) would, or would be reasonably likely to, constitute a breach of any of the fiduciary or statutory duties of any member of the Target Board, provided that the Competing Proposal was not brought about by, or in respect of which there has not been, a breach of clause 2.1.

2.5 Non-public information

- (a) Subject to clause 2.5(b), if during the Exclusivity Period any non-public information about the business or affairs of Target Group is provided or made available to any person in connection with an actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal which has not previously been provided or made available to Bidder, Target must promptly, and in any event within 2 Business Days of the date on which such non-public information has been provided or made available to such person, provide to Bidder:
 - (i) in the case of written materials, a copy of; and
 - (ii) in any other case, a written statement of, that non-public information.
- (b) Clause 2.5(a) does not require Target to provide or make available to Bidder any information which Target reasonably considers is likely to disclose information relating to that other person which is commercially sensitive information of that person.

2.6 Notification of approaches

- (a) During the Exclusivity Period, Target must as soon as reasonably practicable (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Bidder in writing if it, or any of its Representatives, becomes aware of any:
 - (i) negotiations, discussions or other communications, or approach, in relation to a Competing Proposal;
 - (ii) approach or proposal made to Target or any of its Representatives, in connection with, or in respect of any exploration or completion of, a Competing Proposal; or
 - (iii) provision by Target or any of its Representatives of any material non-public information concerning the business or operations of Target or the Target Group to any Third Party (other than a Regulatory Authority) in connection with a Competing Proposal,whether direct or indirect, solicited or unsolicited, and in writing or otherwise.
- (b) A notification given under clause 2.6(a) must include all material terms and conditions of the Competing Proposal, including as to value and price, and details of and the identity of the proposed bidder or acquirer, to the extent known by Target or its Representatives.

2.7 Compliance with law

- (a) If it is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, or the Takeovers Panel, that the agreement by the parties under this clause 2 or any part of it:

- (i) constituted, or constitutes, or would constitute, a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties of the Target Board;
- (ii) constituted, or constitutes, or would constitute, 'unacceptable circumstances' within the meaning of the Corporations Act; or
- (iii) was, or is, or would be, unlawful for any other reason, then, to that extent (and only to that extent) Target will not be obliged to comply with that provision of clause 2.

- (b) The parties must not make or cause to be made, any application to a court or the Takeovers Panel for or in relation to a determination referred to in this clause 2.7.

2.8 Usual provision of information

Nothing in this clause 2 prevents Target from:

- (a) providing any information to its Representatives;
- (b) providing any information to any Regulatory Authority;
- (c) providing any information required to be provided by any applicable law, including to satisfy its obligations to any Regulatory Authority;
- (d) providing any information to its auditors, clients, financiers, joint venturers, suppliers, contractual counterparties or shareholders; or
- (e) making presentations to, or responding to enquiries from, brokers, portfolio investors, analysts and other third parties, and engaging with financiers and potential financiers.

3. Agreed Fee

3.1 Payment of Agreed Fee

Target must, on the relevant Fee Payment Date, pay to Bidder the Agreed Fee in cleared and immediately available funds (without withholding or set off) into a bank account notified in writing to Target by Bidder if any of the following occurs:

- (a) on or before the end of the Exclusivity Period, Target has breached any material provision of this deed and Target does not remedy that breach within 5 Business Days of receipt of written notice of such breach from Bidder; or
- (b) a member of the Target Group has, before the end of the Exclusivity Period, received a Competing Proposal and, on or before the End Date:
 - (i) a member of the Target Group has entered into any legally binding scheme implementation agreement, bid implementation agreement or similar to give effect to a Superior Proposal in respect of that Competing Proposal; or
 - (ii) a person (either alone or with other persons) has made, or has publicly announced their proposal to make, a takeover bid under Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act for ordinary shares in Target in respect of that Competing Proposal and such a takeover bid has been recommended by the Target Board; or
- (c) during the Exclusivity Period, a matter directly concerning the operations and affairs of Target which existed, and was known to Target (including the impact of that matter if the impact of the matter can reasonably be determined), at the date of this deed but was not public, becomes public or otherwise known to Bidder or its Representatives, in circumstances where:

- (i) Target's failure to disclose that matter prior to the date of this deed constituted a breach of Target' continuous disclosure obligations; and
- (ii) the matter constitutes a Target Material Adverse Event.

3.2 Acknowledgement

The parties agree that the Agreed Fee is an amount to compensate Bidder for:

- (a) advisory costs;
- (b) costs of management and directors' time;
- (c) out-of-pocket expenses (including any domestic or international travel costs (whether by air, land, sea or otherwise));
- (d) the distraction of Bidder's management from conducting Bidder's business as usual caused by pursuing a Transaction;
- (e) reasonable opportunity costs incurred by Bidder in pursuing a Transaction or in not pursuing alternative acquisitions or strategic initiatives which Bidder could have developed to further its business and objectives; and
- (f) damage to Bidder's reputation associated with a failed transaction and the implications of that damage to Bidder's business.

The parties agree that the costs incurred are of a nature that they cannot be accurately quantified and that a genuine pre-estimate of the costs would equal or exceed the Agreed Fee.

3.3 Other claims

The maximum aggregate amount which Target is required to pay in relation to this deed (including any breach of this deed by Target) is the Agreed Fee and in no event will the aggregate liability of Target under or in connection with this deed exceed the Agreed Fee.

3.4 Exclusive remedy

Notwithstanding any other provision under this deed, where the Agreed Fee is paid to Bidder under this deed, Bidder cannot make any claim against Target, its Related Entities or their respective directors, officers and employees under or in connection with this deed.

4. Exclusivity extension

- (a) The parties must use reasonable endeavours to agree the Phase One Documents and Phase Two Documents as soon as practicable after the date of this deed and the Target must use reasonable endeavours to populate a virtual data room with the Phase One Documents and Phase Two Documents as soon as practicable after the date of this deed.
- (b) If Target has not populated the virtual data room with the Phase Two Documents agreed by the parties by 28 March 2022, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Exclusivity Period will automatically be extended by one week.

5. No obligation to proceed

Without limiting clause 2, the parties acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Transaction remains non-binding and there is no obligation on any party to proceed with or consummate the Transaction; and
- (b) either Bidder or Target has the right to terminate any discussions or negotiations in connection with the Transaction, unless and until a definitive, legally binding agreement is entered into to give effect to the Transaction.

6. Confidentiality

Target and Bidder agree that the existence and content of this deed constitutes 'Confidential Information' for the purposes of the Confidentiality Agreement.

7. Notice

Target and Bidder agree that clause 13 (Notice) of the Confidentiality Agreement shall apply to each communication (including each notice, consent, approval, request and demand) under or in connection with this deed as if the references to 'this agreement' are to 'this deed'.

8. General

8.1 Amendments

This deed may only be varied by a document signed by or on behalf of each party.

8.2 Assignment

A party cannot assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights under this deed without the prior consent of each other party.

8.3 Consents

Unless this deed expressly provides otherwise, a consent under this deed may be given or withheld in the absolute discretion of the party entitled to give the consent and to be effective must be given in writing.

8.4 Costs

Each party must pay its own costs and expenses in connection with negotiating, preparing, executing and performing this deed.

8.5 Counterparts

This deed may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the parties on separate counterparts.

8.6 Entire agreement

To the extent permitted by law, in relation to its subject matter, this deed and the Confidentiality Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the parties, and constitutes the entire terms agreed by the parties, and supersedes any previous agreement by the parties.

8.7 Severance

If any provision or part of a provision of this deed is held or found to be void, invalid or otherwise unenforceable (whether in respect of a particular party or generally), it will be deemed to be severed to the extent that it is void or to the extent of voidability, invalidity or unenforceability, but the remainder of that provision will remain in full force and effect.

8.8 Waivers

Without limiting any other provision of this deed, the parties agree that:

- (a) failure to exercise or enforce, or a delay in exercising or enforcing, or the partial exercise or enforcement of, a right, power or remedy provided by law or under this deed by a party does not preclude, or operate as a waiver of, the exercise or enforcement, or further exercise or enforcement, of that or any other right, power or remedy provided by law or under this deed;
- (b) a waiver given by a party under this deed is only effective and binding on that party if it is given or confirmed in writing by that party; and
- (c) no waiver of a breach of a term of this deed operates as a waiver of another breach of that term or of a breach of any other term of this deed.

8.9 Term and termination

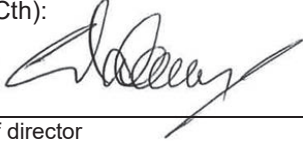

- (a) This deed, and the parties' obligations under it, will terminate on the earliest of the following to occur:
 - (i) the expiry of the Exclusivity Period; and
 - (ii) the parties executing an Implementation Agreement.
- (b) No party may terminate or rescind this deed except as permitted under this clause 8.9.
- (c) The parties acknowledge and agree that clause 3 (Agreed Fee) (including any obligation to pay and entitlement to receive payment of an Agreed Fee) shall remain operative whether or not that right arises before, on or after termination of this deed.

9. Governing law and jurisdiction

This deed is governed by the law applying in New South Wales. Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts having jurisdiction in that state and the courts competent to determine appeals from those courts, with respect to any proceedings that may be brought at any time relating to this deed and waives any objection it may have now or in the future to the venue of any proceedings, and any claim it may have now or in the future that any proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum, if that venue falls within this clause 9.
